AUCTION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the goods comprising, watch, pens, crockery cloth, machinery parts, Electric motors, whisky and all other misc. goods shall be auctioned at the Custom House, Central Revenue Building, Inder Prastha Estate, Harding Bridge, Mathura Road, New Delhi from 15th September 1960, onward at 3 P. M. each day.

2. Bonafide bidders are requested to contact Officer In-charge, from 2 P. M. to 5 P. M. on 12th and 13th for a detailed list of the goods, which are to be sold in auction and for inspection of the goods.

3. The auction is subject to the following conditions:—

(i) The Officer supervising the auction will reserve to himself the right of—

(a) fixing a reserve price.

(b) selling them in smaller lots than those mentioned in the List.

(c) Withdrawing part or whole of the goods from the auction, if necessary, or refusing to accept the bid of any person or persons without assigning any reason.

(ii) A person bidding on behalf of another person should produce a written authority from such other person authorising him to act on behalf of such other person in all matters at the auction sale. In the absence of such authority the bid, if accepted, shall be registered in the name of the actual bidder and he shall be responsible to the Govt. for any loss etc. which might accrue to the Government as a result of his action without proper authority.

(iii) If any dispute arises as to any bid, the goods may be put to auction again at the discretion of the Supervising Officer, whose decision shall be final and binding on all persons bidding at the auction.

(iv) The goods will be sold on the assumption that the bidders have inspected the lots and know what they are buying whether they have actually inspected them or not and no complaint as to the quantity, quality, size, measurements, number and weights etc. of the goods will be entertained from the buyers after the goods have been auctioned unless the number and weight etc. are specifically declared on the spot by the Supervising Officer. When the goods are sold by weight etc. or number and the purchaser fails to obtain the delivery of the whole or a portion of the goods sold, he shall not be entitled to make any claim other than for proportionate refund of the value of the undelivered quantity. He shall not be entitled to claim, any damages, loss or profit, interest or compensation of on any account.

(v) Lots once knocked down to and registered in the name of the highest bidder shall on no account be transferred to any other name and names and if not removed at once, remain at the risk and consequence of the purchasers and the department will not be liable for any loss, damage etc. after auction.

(vi) The successful bidder must deposit forthwith the amount of the bid with the officer conducting the auction or in the Govt. treasury in cases where the same is within easy reach from the place of the auction on being asked in writing to do so by the officer conducting the auction. In the latter case, the successful bidder must produce the receipted copy of the challan to the officer conducting the auction within a date to be fixed for the purpose.

(vii) In all cases, any tax due under any state and or local law shall be payable by the purchaser exclusive of the sale value unless otherwise declared by the officer supervising the auction and the purchasers shall produce receipt in token of payment of such tax before he shall be entitled to remove the goods.

(viii) If the amount of the bid is not deposited as stipulated in para 3 (vi) above the goods will be sold in any manner which the Collector of Customs thinks fit and in the event of their fetching a lesser price the difference shall be made good by the bidder concerned.

(ix) The goods sold will be removed by the buyer from the place of storage within the period specified at the time of auction. Deliveries will be made only during working hours on all working days. The purchaser will make his own arrangements for the transport and he will not be entitled to claim any facilities or assistance for transport from the department.

(x) For bids open for approval not less than 25% of the amount of the bid shall have to be deposited in cash as earnest money by the bidder.

M. S. BINDRA
